G C G C G
last night i got drunk well what was i supposed to do G C G D
i couldn't think of anything clever to say
G C G
so i got drunk thinking of you
G C
and then some of my friends they came around
G C D
and i tried to smile and act the clown
G C D G C G
but somehow it didn't ring true so i got drunk thinking of you

D C G
i got drunk thinking of you
D C G
i got drunk thinking of you
D C G
i got druuuuunk thinking of you

G C D
after this they had said all there was to say
G C D
then i got up and walked away
G C G C G
i couldn't think of a reason to stay so i got drunk thinking of you

D C G
i got drunk thinking of you
D C G
i got drunk thinking of you
D C G
i got druuuuunk thinking of you

D C
and it's one for me and it's one for you
D G
and then there's one for the pain that you put me through
C D pretending tonight that it just isn't true
C D G
i get druuuunk thinking of you

G C D
and then i'll wake up tomorrow and i'll feel okay
G C D
'cos i know that this pain will go away
C D
but you had better be sure of the things that you said
C D
and you had better be sure that you want it this way
C D
'cos i did all my drinking yesterday
C D
and i did all my thinking yesterday
C D G
and now i've stohooped thinking of you
D C G
[: and i have stopped thinking about you
D C G
and i have stopped drinking about you
D C G
and i have stoohopped thinking of you :]
